North

North Strategic is Canada's fastest-growing national public relations and social media agency, with a proven track record for working with world class brands to improve the business impact of their communications strategies. We completely disrupted a stale, traditional industry by introducing a social by design agency model that helped us secure clients such as Twitter, Samsung, Rogers, TD Bank, Tim Horton's, Samsung, Canadian Tire and many others. The company has won best in class marketing and PR awards including Canada's Agency of the Year for two consecutive years and several industry awards for the creative work that we develop for our clients. We bring mass media coverage, word-of-mouth buzz and social media marketing together with brand strategy and storytelling to help propel our clients' businesses forward. Not to mention, North's timesheet-free environment is a major differentiator in the industry as we look to add new talent to our roster.
